Returning Larger Seatrout (Sewin)

All sewin (sea trout) larger than 66cm/26inches (approximately 8lb in weight) from the tip of the tail to the front of the nose (please see picture below) must be returned. The main reasons for this are: Larger sewin tend to be female, are usually multiple spawner's, and genetic studies show that larger, longer-lived Sea Trout produce young that are also likely to grow large;(for more information visit:

www.speyfisheryboard.com/sea-trout-information)

They are a precious resource and need our protection.

All Sewin (sea trout) larger than 66cm /26inches approximately 8lbs in weight caught on club water are to be returned alive to the river. Please see diagram above

Daily Limit:

No More than 2 migratory fish to be retained per angling trip;

If you kill 2 sewin: Any more fish caught must be returned.

If you kill 1 Sewin + 1 Salmon: Any more fish caught must be returned

If you kill 2 Salmon: Any more fish caught must be returned.

Only 1 angling trip per 24 hour period.

Salmon Season Limit:

No more than 3 salmon per season are to be killed by any Llandeilo Permit Holder.

The Executive Committee have brought in these rules to ensure that we as CPLIAA are at the forefront of fish conservation in the Tywi valley. We do not support total Catch and Release, and feel that anglers should be able to take a fish or two home to enjoy. However research shows that some fish that run our rivers are of more value to us as anglers in the river, than on our tables. We are asking you to follow these rules as our attempt at ensuring salmon and sea trout angling for future generations.

New Rules for Fishing the Baskets Pool: Odd and Even Permits

Fishing the pool is based on the calendar month. So if you have an even ticket/permit number you will fish on an even date say the 8th, 10th or 12th and visa versa for odd ticket/permit numbers.

With regards to Night fishing, here is an example: if you wish to night fish on the 12th and have an even number ticket, you may fish through until the morning of the 13th. However you will not be allowed to return to fish the Baskets on the evening of the 13th. Daylight fishing is date dependant, for example if a flood arrives on 14th of June only evens permit holders may fish the Baskets, that day.

The Baskets pool gets very heavily fished and this rule is aimed at reducing the number of anglers who fish it daily. Do not forget we have a further 8 miles of river which offers very good fishing, which you may fish whenever you wish.

Finally this rule will be enforced for the 2017 season, and the club will take action against those who do not follow it.
